Addition word problems

Kindergarten Addition Worksheet

Draw objects and count to solve the problems.

1. Benjamin has four peaches and Elijah has three peaches. How many peaches do Benjamin and Elijah have together?

2. Michael has four more oranges than William. William has three oranges. How many oranges does Michael have?

3. There are four small marbles and four big marbles. How many marbles are there altogether?

Addition word problems

Kindergarten Addition Worksheet

Draw objects and count to solve the problems.

1. Benjamin has four peaches and Elijah has three peaches. How many peaches do Benjamin and Elijah have together?

   7 peaches.

2. Michael has four more oranges than William. William has three oranges. How many oranges does Michael have?

   7 oranges.

3. There are four small marbles and four big marbles. How many marbles are there altogether?

   8 marbles.