

Story words

Grade 4 Vocabulary Worksheet

Complete the stories by filling in the missing words.

opinion shin rust accomplish respond introduce silent
demonstrate stroll assist responsibility maintenance

Some of my friends and I decided to volunteer at a nursing home once a month. We walked into the home to _____ ourselves to the staff, who then _____ what activities we would be helping with.

One important _____ was to _____ the residents as they took a _____ around the outside of the building. They might want to talk, or stay _____. We should listen to their stories and _____, even if we don't agree with their _____.

We could help with _____, like cleaning _____ off of the water spouts or sweeping leaves off the sidewalk. There was so much to do!

I knew we could _____ a lot while we were there. I decided to start outside, since the weather was beautiful. I was walking outside the building, when I accidentally hit my _____ on one of the water spouts I was going to clean off. Ouch! Luckily, it didn't dampen my helping spirit!

Story words

Grade 4 Vocabulary Worksheet

Answers:

opinion shin rust accomplish respond introduce silent
demonstrate stroll assist responsibility maintenance

Some of my friends and I decided to volunteer at a nursing home once a month. We walked into the home to introduce ourselves to the staff, who then demonstrated what activities we would be helping with.

One important responsibility was to assist the residents as they took a stroll around the outside of the building. They might want to talk, or stay silent. We should listen to their stories and respond, even if we don't agree with their opinion.

We could help with maintenance, like cleaning rust off of the water spouts or sweeping leaves off the sidewalk. There was so much to do!

I knew we could accomplish a lot while we were there. I decided to start outside, since the weather was beautiful. I was walking outside the building, when I accidentally hit my shin on one of the water spouts I was going to clean off. Ouch! Luckily, it didn't dampen my helping spirit!

