

Some nouns end in a consonant letter and “y”. You usually change the “y” to “i” and add “es” to make these nouns plural.

Examples: country -> countries

library -> libraries

Some nouns end in a vowel letter and “y”. You usually don’t change the “y” to “i” and add “es”. You add an “s” to make these nouns plural.

Examples: donkey -> donkeys

monkey -> monkeys

Change the “y” to “i” and add “es” to make these nouns plural. Notice that these words end with a consonant and a “y”.

1. balcony _____

8. body _____

2. sky _____

9. family _____

3. cherry _____

10. candy _____

4. party _____

11. bakery _____

5. berry _____

12. puppy _____

6. factory _____

13. copy _____

7. memory _____

14. bully _____