

In questions, the subject of the sentence comes between the helping verb and the main verb.

Examples: Are you coming home soon?

Will mother make dinner now?

Has the bus stopped at the corner?

Put a box around the subject of each question. Underline the helping verb and the main verb in each sentence.

1. Have the children gone to the swimming pool?
2. Can Mr. Jones see my effort in science class?
3. Is the janitor cleaning the hallway?
4. Will dad fly the airplane today?
5. Are the relatives driving from Texas?
6. Has the pollution increased?
7. Did the mayor give you permission?
8. Does the answer fit the definition?
9. Do you want this one or that one?

