Read the passage. Then answer each question.

SUSY BROWN

Susy Brown is a good girl; she is willing to give up her playtime and stay at home to take care of the baby.

Some of her friends were going to the woods and fields to pick berries, and Susy wanted to go with them. However, when Susy came home from school, she found her mother tired and worn out from her work and the heat. Susy took the baby and said she would stay at home and let her mother rest. When the girls came home with their berries, they all gave Susy some. Everybody loves Susy.

Answer the Questions

1. Why is Susy Brown a good girl?
