

Cursive passages: Apples

| Cursive Writing Worksheet   |                 |          |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|----------|
| Trace and copy the passage: |                 |          |
| Do you like apples?         |                 |          |
| Apples can be red, yellow   | vor green. Each | color    |
| $\mathcal{O}$               | make apples inc |   |
| treats. Apples grow on tre  | es. They finish |          |
| growing in the fall. Whe    | en you pick an  |          |
| apple, you twist it and th  | ien you pull it | -off     |
| the tree.                   |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |
|                             |                 |          |