

Using a comma to connect clauses

Grade 2 Punctuation Worksheet

Use a comma and conjunction to connect the sentences.

Commas can be used to connect two complete sentences, along with a conjunction such as “and”, “but”, “or”, and “so”.

We went shopping. Then we went to the pool.

We went shopping, and then we went to the pool.

1. Andre is good at basketball. He prefers baseball.

_____

-----

_____

-----

_____

2. I have a new pair of sneakers. I am going to see how far I can run!

_____

-----

_____

-----

_____

3. I would like to climb a mountain. I would then like to ski down it!

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. Do you think it would be fun to rock climb? Would it be more fun to parachute?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. In a triathlon, you have to swim and bike. Then you have to run!

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Answers

1. Andre is good at basketball. He prefers baseball.
Andre is good at basketball, but he prefers baseball.
2. I have a new pair of sneakers. I am going to see how far I can run!
I have a new pair of sneakers, so I am going to see how far I can run!
3. I would like to climb a mountain. I would then like to ski down it!
I would like to climb a mountain, and then I would like to ski down it!
4. Do you think it would be fun to rock climb? Would it be more fun to parachute?
Do you think it would be fun to rock climb, or would it be more fun to parachute?
5. In a triathlon, you have to swim and bike. Then you have to run!
In a triathlon, you have to swim and bike, and then you have to run!