

Common apostrophes: you're and your

Grade 2 Punctuation Worksheet

Choose you're or your for each sentence.

1. Your shirt is inside out.
2. _____ the next one on the list.
3. _____ hands are dirty.
4. _____ supposed to answer the phone.
5. Where did you put _____ boots?
6. Do you think _____ ready?
7. I believe _____ capable of doing this.
8. I saw _____ bike at the park.
9. _____ teeth are so white.
10. _____ the best hockey player I know.
11. We know _____ listening to us.
12. Put _____ blanket on the bed.

you're is short for you are.

You're late. -> You are late.

your means that something belongs to you.

Your coat is on the floor. -> The coat that belongs to you is on the floor

Common apostrophes: you're and your

Grade 2 Punctuation Worksheet

Answers

1. Your shirt is inside out.
2. You're the next one on the list.
3. Your hands are dirty.
4. You're supposed to answer the phone.
5. Where did you put your boots?
6. Do you think you're ready?
7. I believe you're capable of doing this.
8. I saw your bike at the park.
9. Your teeth are so white.
10. You're the best hockey player I know.
11. We know you're listening to us.
12. Put your blanket on the bed.