Write I or me on the blank line in each sentence.

1. The teacher told Marissa and ____ that it was our turn.

2. She and ____ went to the front of the class.

3. _____ placed our poster on the board.

4. Marissa helped _____ with that.

5. Marissa started to speak and _____ was listening.

6. She looked at ____ when she was done her part.

7. _____ spoke up and finished the presentation.

8. The teacher asked Marissa and _____ a few questions.

9. Then, _____ took the poster down.

10. Marissa and _____ went back to our desk.

“I” and “me” are short words we substitute for someone’s name in a sentence.
Answers

1. The teacher told Marissa and _____ that it was our turn.

2. She and ____ went to the front of the class.

3. ____ placed our poster on the board.

4. Marissa helped ____ with that.

5. Marissa started to speak and ____ was listening.

6. She looked at ____ when she was done her part.

7. ____ spoke up and finished the presentation.

8. The teacher asked Marissa and ____ a few questions.

9. Then, ____ took the poster down.

10. Marissa and ____ went back to our desk.