Fill in the blanks story

Grade 3 Parts of Speech Worksheet

Fill in the blanks with the right parts of speech to complete the story.

Alfred’s New House

Once upon a ________ (noun), there was a boy named Alfred who decided to build a __________ (adjective) tree house. He __________ (verb) through his yard and picked up all the spare pieces of __________ (noun #2) that he could find. He __________ (verb #2) small ones and big ones and piled them all up near the oak tree. He figured he would also need __________ (noun #3) and a hammer to assemble his tree house. He went to his father’s workshop and found a good-sized hammer that he could use. He __________ (verb #3) in the drawers and finally found a __________ (noun #4) of nails. He brought everything back with him to the __________ (noun #5) and started building his __________ (adjective #2) tree house. By supper time, Alfred was tired, but he was __________ (adjective #3) of his work. The tree house looked __________ (adjective #4). Now, all he had to do was put it up in the tree. Maybe his dad could __________ (verb #3) with that.
Once upon a __time__ (noun), there was a boy named Alfred who decided to build a __new__ (adjective) tree house. He __walked__ (verb) through his yard and picked up all the spare pieces of __wood__ (noun #2) that he could find. He __found__ (verb #2) small ones and big ones and piled them all up near the oak tree. He figured he would also need __nails__ (noun #3) and a hammer to assemble his tree house. He went to his father’s workshop and found a good-sized hammer that he could use. He __looked__ (verb #3) in the drawers and finally found a __box__ (noun #4) of nails. He brought everything back with him to the __yard__ (noun #5) and started building his __new__ (adjective #2) tree house. By supper time, Alfred was tired, but he was __proud__ (adjective #3) of his work. The tree house looked __amazing__ (adjective #4). Now, all he had to do was put it up in the tree. Maybe his dad could __help__ (verb #3) with that.