

Coordinating conjunctions

Grade 4 Conjunctions Worksheet

Combine two sentences by using a comma and a conjunction.

Two sentences can be combined by adding a comma and a coordinating conjunction such as and, but, or, so, and yet.

1. We can go to France. We can go to Italy.

2. We were invited to the party. We choose not to go.

3. My parents work hard. We go on vacation every summer.

4. The lady was late to work. Her boss was angry.

5. Ron travels to Florida. He loves to visit Orlando.

6. We have no official homework. We still need to review our spelling words.

7. The door was closed. We were able to climb in through the window.

8. The drinks were delicious. They were full of sugar.

9. The team lost the game. They were not sad at all.

10. I want to be a teacher. I want to teach math.

Answers

Answers may vary.

1. We can go to France, or we can go to Italy.
2. We were invited to the party, yet we choose not to go.
3. My parents work hard, so we go on vacation every summer.
4. The lady was late to work, so her boss was angry.
5. Ron travels to Florida, and he loves to visit Orlando.
6. We have no official homework, but we still need to review our spelling words.
7. The door was closed, but we were able to climb in through the window.
8. The drinks were delicious, but they were full of sugar.
9. The team lost the game, yet they were not sad at all.
10. I want to be a teacher, and I want to teach math.