

Coordinating conjunctions

Grade 4 Conjunctions Worksheet

Combine two sentences by using a comma and a conjunction.

Two sentences can be combined by adding a comma and a coordinating conjunction such as and, but, or, so, and yet.

1. A cat has strong claws. It can climb.

2. The doctor works at the hospital. His wife works there too.

3. The bank robber stole a lot of money. He was caught minutes later.

4. We lost the coins. We weren't very disappointed.

5. The swimming pool has opened. People are there every day.

6. My dad will buy a truck. My dad will buy a car.

7. I'm raising money. Our team can go to Florida for a tournament.

8. The computer is broken. We are taking it to the store to get it fixed.

9. The phone is ringing. No one is answering.

10. Our house is big. It holds many people.

Coordinating conjunctions

Grade 4 Conjunctions Worksheet

Answers

1. A cat has strong claws, so it can climb.
2. The doctor works at the hospital, and his wife works there too.
3. The bank robber stole a lot of money, but he was caught minutes later.
4. We lost the coins, yet we weren't very disappointed.
5. The swimming pool has opened, so people are there every day.
6. My dad will buy a truck, or my dad will buy a car.
7. I'm raising money, so our team can go to Florida for a tournament.
8. The computer is broken, so we are taking it to the store to get it fixed.
9. The phone is ringing, yet no one is answering.
10. Our house is big, so it holds many people.