

Missing subjects or predicates

Grade 4 Sentences Worksheet

Write whether each phrase below is missing a subject or a predicate. Rewrite each sentence by adding the missing part. A subject is what the sentence is about.

A predicate gives some information about the subject.

Predicate 1.	The puppy you got for your birthday.
	The puppy you got for your birthday is adorable.
2.	My new pair of blue tennis shoes.
3.	Is looking for a place to take a nap.
4.	My brother's best friend, Louie, who lives in Texas.
5.	Has two little sisters and one baby brother.
6.	Are walking to the park after school.
7.	The big, brown house on the corner of the street.
8.	A lot of people in my class.
9.	Clap and cheer on the team.
10.	Go camping in the spring.

© www.k5learning.com

Missing subjects or predicates

Grade 4 Sentences Worksheet

Answer

Answers will vary.

Predicate 1.	The puppy you got for your birthday. The puppy you got for your birthday is adorable.
Predicate 2.	My new pair of blue tennis shoes. My new pair of blue tennis shoes are very comfortable.
Subject 3.	Is looking for a place to take a nap. The little kitten is looking for a place to take a nap.
Predicate 4.	My brother's best friend, Louie, who lives in Texas. My brother's best friend, Louie, who lives in Texas is coming to visit us.
Subject 5.	Has two little sisters and one baby brother. Ryan has two little sisters and one baby brother.
Subject 6.	Are walking to the park after school. We are walking to the park after school.
Predicate 7.	The big, brown house on the corner of the street. The big, brown house on the corner of the street has a swimming pool.
Predicate 8.	A lot of people in my class. A lot of people in my class are going to the dance.
Subject 9.	Clap and cheer on the team. The cheerleaders clap and cheer on the team.
Subject 10.	Go camping in the spring. We go camping in the spring.