Write whether each phrase below is missing a subject or a predicate. Rewrite each sentence by adding the missing part.

1. My family who lives in Italy.
   My family who lives in Italy will visit us soon.

2. The green chair next to the couch.

3. Are putting all of their clothes in a box.

4. Eat with a fork and a knife.

5. Stops the car when he gets to the house.

6. The Grand Canyon.

7. A small group of tourists in New York City.

9. Can run very fast.

10. Dropped his books on the floor.

A subject is what the sentence is about.

A predicate gives some information about the subject.
Missing subjects or predicates

Grade 4 Sentences Worksheet

Answer
Answers will vary.

____ Predicate ____ 1. My family who lives in Italy.
   My family who lives in Italy will visit us soon.

____ Predicate ____ 2. The green chair next to the couch.
   The green chair next to the couch was a gift from my aunt.

____ Subject ____ 3. Are putting all of their clothes in a box.
   The people who are moving soon are putting all of their clothes in a box.

____ Subject ____ 4. Eat with a fork and a knife.
   My mom and dad eat with a fork and a knife.

____ Subject ____ 5. Stops the car when he gets to the house.
   My grandpa stops the car when he gets to the house.

   The Grand Canyon is an amazing sight to see.

____ Predicate ____ 7. A small group of tourists in New York City.
   A small group of tourists in New York City are going to a museum.

   My sister’s best friend, Erin, loves to play the violin.

____ Subject ____ 9. Can run very fast.
   Usain Bolt can run very fast.

____ Subject ____ 10. Dropped his books on the floor.
   My little brother dropped his books on the floor.