

Commas and quotation marks

Grade 5 Punctuation Worksheet

Add punctuation to the sentences as needed.

Commas go after the dialogue inside quotation marks. Commas go before quotation marks when introducing dialogue.

Pete suggested Let's go to the park after school today.

I'd love to Amanda responded but I have a lot of homework to finish.

Once you finish your homework Pete said, we can head to the park.

That sounds like a great idea Amanda replied but I could use some help with my math homework. It's really hard!

Pete nicely offered, I can help you if you'd like. I'm good at math!

Amanda gratefully answered I would really appreciate your help! Thanks for offering.

Pete said Let me grab my math book and try to make some practice problems for you.

You're a really kind person, Pete Amanda said.

Write a sentence with the quote before and after the speaker's name.

---

---

Answers

Answers may vary slightly.

Pete suggested, "Let's go to the park after school today."

"I'd love to," Amanda responded, "but I have a lot of homework to finish."

"Once you finish your homework," Pete said, "we can head to the park."

"That sounds like a great idea," Amanda replied, "but I could use some help with my math homework. It's really hard!"

Pete nicely offered, "I can help you if you'd like. I'm good at math!"

Amanda gratefully answered, "I would really appreciate your help! Thanks for offering."

Pete said, "Let me grab my math book and try to make some practice problems for you."

"You're a really kind person, Pete," Amanda said.

Write a sentence with the quote before and after the speaker's name.

Answers will vary.