

Comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs

Grade 5 Adjectives & Adverbs Worksheet

Fill in the blanks using comparative or superlative adjectives and adverbs.

Mrs. Thompson is the the kindest lady in my neighborhood. She bakes _____ than all the other neighbors. She gives _____ gifts for our birthdays. She hands out _____ candy bars than everyone else in the neighborhood.

My parents have known Mrs. Thompson _____ than anyone else. She is _____ person they know. My parents think she is _____ than my grandma.

This year, we will throw _____ party for Mrs. Thompson's birthday. Her cake will be _____ than any you have ever seen. She will have _____ time. We will all tell her that she is _____ person in the world.

A comparative compares things.

He is smaller than his sister.

A superlative states that something is the most or the least.

He is the smallest in his family.

Comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs

Grade 5 Adjectives & Adverbs Worksheet

Answers

Answers will vary.

Mrs. Thompson is the the kindest lady in my neighborhood.

She bakes more cookies than all the other neighbors. She gives the best gifts for our birthdays. She hands out larger candy bars than everyone else in the neighborhood.

My parents have known Mrs. Thompson longer than anyone else. She is the nicest person they know. My parents think she is more generous than my grandma.

This year, we will throw the biggest party for Mrs. Thompson's birthday. Her cake will be more beautiful than any you have ever seen. She will have the best time. We will all tell her that she is the most amazing person in the world.