

Interjections and punctuation

Grade 5 Interjections Worksheet

Circle the interjection in each sentence. Circle mild or strong to identify the type of interjection.

- mild 1. Gee, I hadn't thought of that.
- _____ 2. Well, you can ask your friend for advice.
- _____ 3. Ouch! I stubbed my toe!
- _____ 4. Yippee! We won our first game!
- _____ 5. Oh! You forgot to call me back.
- _____ 6. Ugh, I cannot wait for this class to end.
- _____ 7. Oh no! I missed the bus this morning!
- _____ 8. Yuck! I think this meal is disgusting.

Mild interjections show little emotion and are separated from the sentence with a comma.

Yeah, you can borrow my bike.

Strong interjections show a lot of emotion and are separated from the sentence with an exclamation mark.

Yippee! I won a bike!

Write a sentence using a mild interjection.

Write a sentence using a strong interjection.

Interjections and punctuation

Grade 5 Interjections Worksheet

Answers

- mild 1. Gee, I hadn't thought of that.
- mild 2. Well, you can ask your friend for advice.
- strong 3. Ouch! I stubbed my toe!
- strong 4. Yippee! We won our first game!
- strong 5. Oh! You forgot to call me back.
- mild 6. Ugh, I cannot wait for this class to end.
- strong 7. Oh no! I missed the bus this morning!
- strong 8. Yuck! I think this meal is disgusting.

Answers will vary

Write a sentence using a mild interjection.

Well, that was an interesting statement.

Write a sentence using a strong interjection.

Yikes! That was scary!