

Introductory words

Grade 5 Punctuation Worksheet

Circle the introductory word in each sentence if there is one. Add commas as needed.

An introductory word at the start of a sentence is followed by a comma.

1. No, that is not possible.
2. Eventually he solved the problem.
3. Meanwhile we will need to find a new way to get to Atlanta.
4. Next the teacher will take us to the gym.
5. Now she has to decide where to eat dinner.
6. Basically the team will need to practice three times this weekend.
7. We will be cancelling school because of the snow.
8. Yes the class will be having a test on Friday.
9. Now the students have to bring their own computers to school.
10. Well I thought we were going to be having tacos for dinner.

Write your own sentence with an introductory word. Do not use any of the introductory words used in the previous exercises.

Answers

1. No, that is not possible.
2. Eventually, he solved the problem.
3. Meanwhile, we will need to find a new way to get to Atlanta.
4. Next, the teacher will take us to the gym.
5. Now, she has to decide where to eat dinner.
6. Basically, the team will need to practice three times this weekend.
7. We will be cancelling school because of the snow.
8. Yes, the class will be having a test on Friday.
9. Now, the students have to bring their own computers to school.
10. Well, I thought we were going to be having tacos for dinner.

Write your own sentence with an introductory word. Do not use any of the introductory words used in the previous exercises.

Answers will vary.