

Prepositional phrases as adjectives

Grade 5 Prepositions Worksheet

Add a prepositional phrase to each sentence.
Circle the noun the phrase is describing.

Prepositional phrases can describe nouns, just like adjectives.

The boy in the green hat goes to my school.

1. The lady yelled on the phone.
The lady with the little kids yelled on the phone.

2. The house has three windows.

3. Did you see the cat?

4. We bought the couch.

5. The camera doesn't work anymore.

6. The teacher read the book to the class.

7. The clown has a red nose.

8. My brother has the present.

9. I love to cover up with the blanket.

10. My friends say the television show is boring.

Prepositional phrases as adjectives

---

Grade 5 Prepositions Worksheet

Answers

Answers will vary

1. The lady yelled on the phone.
The lady with the little kids yelled on the phone.
2. The house has three windows.
The house on the corner has three windows.
3. Did you see the cat?
Did you see the cat with the yellow eyes?
4. We bought the couch.
We bought the couch with the fluffy cushions.
5. The camera doesn't work anymore.
The camera in my room doesn't work anymore.
6. The teacher read the book to the class.
The teacher read the book by my favorite author to the class.
7. The clown has a red nose.
The clown with the funny pants has a red nose.
8. My brother has the present.
My brother has the present for my mom.
9. I love to cover up with the blanket.
I love to cover up with the blanket with the silky edges.
10. My friends say the television show is boring.
My friends say the television show on this station is boring.