

Accept or Except

---

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Complete each sentence with the word accept or except.

Accept is a verb meaning to agree, to believe or receive something.

Except is a preposition, conjunction or noun meaning to leave out.

The school fair will _____ all donations.

All houses on our street have gardens _____ for ours.

I finished everything _____ my history
homework.

Everyone _____ dad can go to the beach. He has to work.

I'll _____ a ride to school with you.

I will _____ this trophy. It's a great honor.

I won't _____ your behavior.

Accept or Except

---

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Complete each sentence with the word accept or except.

Accept is a verb meaning to agree, to believe or receive something.

Except is a preposition, conjunction or noun meaning to leave out.

The school fair will accept all donations.

All houses on our street have gardens except for ours.

I finished everything except my history homework.

Everyone except dad can go to the beach. He has to work.

I'll accept a ride to school with you.

I will accept this trophy. It's a great honor.

I won't accept your behavior.

Accept or Except

---

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Complete each sentence with the word accept or except.

Accept is a verb meaning to agree, to believe or receive something.

Except is a preposition, conjunction or noun meaning to leave out.

The school fair will accept all donations.

All houses on our street have gardens except for ours.

I finished everything except my history homework.

Everyone except dad can go to the beach. He has to work.

I'll accept a ride to school with you.

I will accept this trophy. It's a great honor.

I won't accept your behavior.