

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

She could hear her childrens laughter.

Didnt he say he would arrive at Judys house?

Its such a beautiful day that Ive decided to take a walk.

Boys clothing is on the fourth floor; mens clothing is on the first floor.

Theyre not scared by ghosts on Halloween.

He spent his two weeks vacation on the beach.

My phone number has three 8s, and Johns address has three 4s.

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

She could hear her children's laughter.

Didn't he say he would arrive at Judy's house?

It's such a beautiful day that I've decided to take a walk.

Boys' clothing is on the fourth floor; men's clothing is on the first floor.

They're not scared by ghosts on Halloween.

He spent his two weeks' vacation on the beach.

My phone number has three 8s, and John's address has three 4s.