

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

Annas hamsters are called Pika and Blob.

The dogs paw was caught in the sofa.

Corinnas school bag was left behind on the bus.

Whos your friend? Its nice to meet you.

Michelles daughter is going into grade 8 this year.

Tomorrows schedule is going to be busy.

James plan for today is to finish his project.

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

Anna's hamsters are called Pika and Blob.

The dog's paw was caught in the sofa.

Corinna's school bag was left behind on the bus.

Who's your friend? It's nice to meet you.

Michelle's daughter is going into grade 8 this year.

Tomorrow's schedule is going to be busy.

James' plan for today is to finish his project.