

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

Can you tell if anybody's car is in the garage?

Sofia says that she'll go to university next year.

I'm glad we're not late for the concert.

He's the first person I've known who can juggle.

I can't remember whose book I've borrowed.

I like Tom and Bradley's poster the best.

Do we know who's running in the race tomorrow?

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

Can you tell if anybody's car is in the garage?

Sofia says that she'll go to university next year.

I'm glad we're not late for the concert.

He's the first person I've known who can juggle.

I can't remember whose book I've borrowed.

I like Tom and Bradley's poster the best.

Do we know who's running in the race tomorrow?