

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

The actors wardrobe is very stylish.

I wouldve gone to the movies, but I was too tired.

Curtis book bag was found in the library.

The suns shining, lets go outside.

The clocks hands move so slowly in class.

Im so proud of you. You finished washing all the dishes.

I was surprised when my dogs collar broke. Its material was supposed to be sturdy.

Using Apostrophes

Fourth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

The apostrophe has two functions.

1. To show possession/ownership. E.g. This is Ben's dog.
2. In contractions when a word or letter is missing. E.g. Don't go inside. (Do not)

Place the apostrophes in the sentences below.

The actor's wardrobe is very stylish.

I would've gone to the movies, but I was too tired.

Curtis' book bag was found in the library.

The sun's shining, let's go outside.

The clock's hands move so slowly in class.

I'm so proud of you. You finished washing all the dishes.

I was surprised when my dog's collar broke. Its material was supposed to be sturdy.