It was a nice morning, and my family was going out to breakfast. There was a steady stream of people walking into the restaurant, so we thought it would be a long wait. Our waiter was cheerful as she said good morning and took our orders. When our food came, I asked nicely for some peach jam to spread on my toast. She brought some over, and said to my parents, “Wow, your children behave so nicely!” I dropped some jam on my shirt, so my mom took some water to rinse it out. The food was delicious!
