

Applying Meanings

Circle the correct answer to each statement.

1. How would you attempt to solve a math problem?

you'll look at the answer your friend wrote down you'll use what you have learned and try to apply it to this problem

you'll sharpen your pencil

you'll ask a teacher for help

2. Who needs to sign a permission form to let kids go on a school trip?

a parent or guardian

a neighbor

a friend

a teacher

3. When a person has a big impact on someone, what does that mean?

that person has had an effect or made an impression on someone that person is considered hardworking by someone that person is considered funny by someone that person does not want to play with someone

4. What would someone do who had a strong desire to become a professional violinist?

that person would take good care of the violin

that person would play fun songs on the violin

that person would make sure the violin is safe from being stolen

that person would practice the violin a lot to master the instrument

5. Why does a mountain bike need to be sturdy?

because it looks cool when it's bigger than a normal bike because it needs to withstand going over rocks and roots on the trails

because it needs to look different from road bikes

because it's better value for money than a normal bike

Applying Meanings

Circle the correct answer to each statement.

1. How would you attempt to solve a math problem?

you'll look at the answer your friend wrote down

you'll use what you have learned and try to apply it to this problem

you'll sharpen your pencil

you'll ask a teacher for help

2. Who needs to sign a permission form to let kids go on a school trip?

a parent or guardian

a neighbor

a friend

a teacher

3. When a person has a big impact on someone, what does that mean?

that person has had an effect or made an impression on someone

that person is considered hardworking by someone

that person is considered funny by someone

that person does not want to play with someone

4. What would someone do who had a strong desire to become a professional violinist?

that person would take good care of the violin

that person would play fun songs on the violin

that person would make sure the violin is safe from being stolen

that person would practice the violin a lot to master the instrument

5. Why does a mountain bike need to be sturdy?

because it looks cool when it's bigger than a normal bike

because it needs to withstand going over rocks and roots on the trails

because it needs to look different from road bikes

because it's better value for money than a normal bike
