A metaphor is a figure of speech that is used to make a comparison between two things that aren't alike but do have something in common.

The sentences below use metaphors. Explain what each metaphor means.

We should take a different tack to resolve this problem.

My grandmother has a heart of gold.

My child is the apple of my eye.

It's true that birds of a feather flock together.

A stitch in time saves nine.
A metaphor is a figure of speech that is used to make a comparison between two things that aren't alike but do have something in common.

The sentences below use metaphors. Explain what each metaphor means.

We should take a different tack to resolve this problem.

We should try a different approach or direction.

My grandmother has a heart of gold.

A person who is sweet, kind and of good nature.

My child is the apple of my eye.

You cherish someone above all of the other people in your life.

It's true that birds of a feather flock together.

People of the same sort or with the same tastes and interests will be found together.

A stitch in time saves nine.

Get things done on time and prevent yourself from having more work later.