

Word definitions

Grade 5 Vocabulary Worksheet

Select the best definition for each word.

voyage       a long journey by air, land, or see         to move quickly or at a fast pace         unknown         not known         withdraw       to be upset or unhappy         to take out or away         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         to pass by and look carefully         gorge       the narrow space between rocky cliffs         rough, dry skin         an object that stands for something         a truck used to deliver food         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         anything used for building or making something         vulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         A shiny metal used for plumbing         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole         to chase after something unknown       to be sure         unknown       not known         withdraw       to be upset or unhappy         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         gorge       the narrow space between rocky cliffs         rough, dry skin       a truck used to deliver food         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         anything used for building or making something         vulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         sense       a group of people part of the same family         section       any part of a whole	voyage	a long journey by air, land, or see unknown       not known         withdraw       to be upset or unhappy         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         gorge       the narrow space between rocky cliffs         gorge       on object that stands for something         an object that stands for something       a truck used to deliver food         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         wuture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         A shiny metal used for plumbing       a group of people part of the same family         sense       any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       ony part of a whole		to move quickly or at a fast pace incentive       in object that stands for something         incentive       a nobject that stands for something         incentive       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         incentive       a snack made for pulliding or making something         incentive       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         incentive       a group of people part of the same family         incentive       any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings	unknown	to be sure withdraw       to take out or away         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         gorge       to pass by and look carefully         gorge       the narrow space between rocky cliffs         rough, dry skin       an object that stands for something         emblem       an object that stands for something         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         material       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         vulture       a group of people part of the same family         sense       a group of people part of the same family         section       any part of a whole		not known incentive       isomething that makes someone want to work or do something         incentive       something that makes someone want to work or do something         gorge       to pass by and look carefully         gorge       incentive         incentive       incentive         gorge       the narrow space between rocky cliffs         rough, dry skin       incentive         an object that stands for something       a truck used to deliver food         at ruck used to deliver food       incentive         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         wulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         vulture       a group of people part of the same family         sense       a group of people part of the same family         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings	withdraw	to be upset or unhappy incentive to pass by and look carefully gorge the narrow space between rocky cliffs rough, dry skin emblem an object that stands for something a truck used to deliver food a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil anything used for building or making something o a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck a shiny metal used for plumbing sense a group of people part of the same family any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings		to take out or away ito pass by and look carefully         gorge       the narrow space between rocky cliffs         rough, dry skin         emblem       an object that stands for something         a truck used to deliver food         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         vulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         sense       a group of people part of the same family         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole	incentive	something that makes someone want to work or do something gorgerough, dry skinembleman object that stands for something a truck used to deliver foodmateriala snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil anything used for building or making somethingvulturea large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neckvulturea group of people part of the same family any of the five ways to understand one's surroundingssectionany part of a whole		to pass by and look carefully Image: section       rough, dry skin         Image: rough, dry skin       an object that stands for something         Image: rough dry skin       a nobject that stands for something         Image: rough dry skin       a nobject that stands for something         Image: rough dry skin       a nobject that stands for something         Image: rough dry skin       a nobject that stands for something         Image: rough dry skin       a stack used to deliver food         Image: rough dry skin       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         Image: rough dry skin       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         Image: rough dry skin       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         Image: rough dry skin       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         Image: rough dry skin       anything used for building or making something         Image: rough dry skin       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         Image: rough dry skin       A shiny metal used for plumbing         Image: rough dry skin       a group of people part of the same family         Image: rough dry skin       any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         Image: rough dry skin       any part of a whole	gorge	the narrow space between rocky cliffs emblem       a truck used to deliver food         material       a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil         material       anything used for building or making something         vulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         vulture       A shiny metal used for plumbing         sense       a group of people part of the same family         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole		rough, dry skin Imaterial       Imaterial	emblem	<ul> <li>an object that stands for something</li> </ul> material       anything used for building or making something         vulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         vulture       A shiny metal used for plumbing         sense       a group of people part of the same family         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole		a truck used to deliver food vulture       anything used for building or making something         vulture       a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck         A shiny metal used for plumbing       a group of people part of the same family         sense       a group of people part of the same family         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole	material	a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil vulture <ul> <li>neck</li> <li>A shiny metal used for plumbing</li> <li>a group of people part of the same family</li> <li>any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings</li> </ul> section <ul> <li>any part of a whole</li> <li>any part of a whole</li> </ul>		anything used for building or making something
A shiny metal used for plumbing         sense       a group of people part of the same family         any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole	vulture sense       any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section       any part of a whole		A shiny metal used for plumbing any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings         section	sense	a group of people part of the same family section		any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings saction	any part of a whole 36011011	to chase after something

Word definitions

Grade 5 Vocabulary Worksheet

Answers:

voyage	a long journey by air, land, or see to move quickly or at a fast pace unknown	to be sure not known withdraw	to be upset or unhappy to take out or away incentive	something that makes someone want to work or do something to pass by and look carefully gorge	the narrow space between rocky cliffs rough, dry skin an object that stands for something emblem	a truck used to deliver food material	a snack made from potatoes and then fried in oil material	anything used for building or making something vulture	<ul> <li>a large bird that usually has dark feathers and a bald head and neck</li> </ul> A shiny metal used for plumbing sense	a group of people part of the same family any of the five ways to understand one's surroundings soction	any part of a whole section	to chase after something