

Applying meanings

Fifth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Circle the correct answer to each question.

When representatives from the US and Russia engage in a dialogue, what are they doing?

They want to have lunch together

They are competing in a game

They're having a discussion intended to produce an agreement

They are having a verbal disagreement

When firefighters survey the damage caused by a house fire, what are they doing?

They look over carefully or inspect the damage

They dose the house in water with their hoses

They tread carefully around the house

They start their engines

What is a strategy?

An activity

A belief

A thought

A plan you make to achieve a goal

How long are you staying if you say you are here for an indefinite amount of time?

For a day

You're not certain for how long you are staying

For a month

For a week

Why do opinions differ from one person to the next?

Because an opinion is a personal belief or judgement not based on facts

Because they say different things

Because facts differ

Because people tell them different things

Applying meanings

Fifth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Circle the correct answer to each question.

When representatives from the US and Russia engage in a dialogue, what are they doing?

They want to have lunch together

They are competing in a game

They're having a discussion intended to produce an agreement

They are having a verbal disagreement

When firefighters survey the damage caused by a house fire, what are they doing?

They look over carefully or inspect the damage

They dose the house in water with their hoses

They tread carefully around the house

They start their engines

What is a strategy?

An activity

A belief

A thought

A plan you make to achieve a goal

How long are you staying if you say you are here for an indefinite amount of time?

For a day

You're not certain for how long you are staying

For a month

For a week

Why do opinions differ from one person to the next?

Because an opinion is a personal belief or judgement not based on facts

Because they say different things

Because facts differ

Because people tell them different things