

Paragraph

Fifth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Read the paragraph and fill in the missing words.

Word list: intrude, turnpike, despite, indicate, passive, excessive, impressive, constructive, executive, civil

“Wow, look at that _____ car! It’s really nice,” said my dad. The car drove down the _____, with the turn signal on to _____ that it wanted to get into the right lane. _____ the turn signal, the car continued to drive straight! It seemed like it did not want to _____ by getting in front of someone else. It was the opposite of aggressive driving, it was almost too _____. You are supposed to wait before changing lanes to make sure you have enough room, but this amount of time was _____. “Here’s some _____ criticism of that driver: while he or she is being safe, it confuses people to have a turn signal on for that long,” my dad said. “I’m going to make the _____ decision to go around that car. I want to remain _____, not get annoyed!”

Paragraph

Fifth Grade Vocabulary Worksheet

Read the paragraph and fill in the missing words.

Word list: intrude, turnpike, despite, indicate, passive, excessive, impressive, constructive, executive, civil

“Wow, look at that impressive car! It’s really nice,” said my dad. The car drove down the turnpike, with the turn signal on to indicate that it wanted to get into the right lane. Despite the turn signal, the car continued to drive straight! It seemed like it did not want to intrude by getting in front of someone else. It was the opposite of aggressive driving, it was almost too passive. You are supposed to wait before changing lanes to make sure you have enough room, but this amount of time was excessive. “Here’s some constructive criticism of that driver: while he or she is being safe, it confuses people to have a turn signal on for that long,” my dad said. “I’m going to make the executive decision to go around that car. I want to remain civil, not get annoyed!”

